JOB OPENING

ADJUNCT INSTRUCTOR
FALL 2024

The Department of Animal Science at the University of Connecticut is seeking an adjunct instructor to teach the following course in the Fall of 2024 at the Storrs Campus:

COURSE TITLE
Dairy Cattle Management - ANSC 3261/SAAS 261

FORMAT
Lecture and Lab

DESCRIPTION
3 credit course taught utilizing a combination of traditional lectures, experiential labs, reading and writing assignments, and facilitated discussions amongst students to engage them in building their knowledge and skills in dairy management. The adjunct instructor will lecture on the production and management of dairy cattle, and be responsible for organizing field trips to animal units on campus, working in conjunction with the Executive Program Director of the Dairy and Livestock Units. This course meets weekly on Wednesday between 11:15 am and 12:05 pm, with labs scheduled on Wednesday from 1:25 pm to 4:25 pm.

Knowledge of dairy production and management and prior experience teaching at the college level is necessary to teach this course.

STIPEND FOR COURSE
$2,062/credit (Per Contract article 19.7 of the American Association of University Professors, AAUP)

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS
PhD or equivalence

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS
MS or equivalence with previous experience teaching at the college level

CONTACT
For inquiries, contact Dr. Cindy Tian at xiuchun.tian@uconn.edu or (860) 486-9087.

Review of applications will begin on August 12, 2024, and continue until a successful candidate is selected.

All employees are subject to adherence to the State Code of Ethics which may be found at http://www.ct.gov/ethics/site/default.asp.